The Catholic Diocese of Toowoomba:

Nurturing welcoming communities from the Range to the Borders where God's mercy, love and the joy of the Gospel are experienced, celebrated and shared.

Introduction: Diocesan Action Plan

At the heart of the faith in our Diocese is our local Parish. It is in our Parish that we live out our lives within the context of our relationship with Christ and his church. Our Diocesan Pastoral Plan has been developed to give direction to our Diocese during the next five years. It is the result of a facilitated listening process throughout the Diocese during the past year and reflects the voice of the people of this Diocese.

This Diocesan Action Plan is designed to provide action strategies for the Pastoral Plan and complements the work of the Diocesan Pastoral Council in providing support and direction to Parishes in enactment of our Diocesan Pastoral Plan 2018-2023. Both Diocese and Parish have an active role in implementing the Diocesan Pastoral Plan and the subsequent Action Plan.

The Key Pastoral Directions outlined in the Plan are a response to an expressed need for greater attention to be focussed on some areas rather than others. In essence it identifies the Diocesan priorities but does not preclude Parishes from working in other areas of relevance to their own context.

The Diocesan Action Plan is intended to ensure that our Diocesan Pastoral Plan will become more than mere words on paper and therefore includes actions for the Diocese, Deaneries and Parishes. There will be need at the diocesan level to address matters that require long-range planning and cannot be done overnight. Deaneries are asked to make it a priority to facilitate the implementation of the Diocesan Pastoral Plan, ensuring that this item has a regular place on deanery meeting agendas.

Parishes will over time revisit their own pastoral plans and review these in the light of the Diocesan Key Pastoral Directions. Each Parish is responsible for deciding what actions are appropriate in their situation in response to our Diocesan Pastoral Plan since what is appropriate for one Parish may not be relevant in another.

The Diocesan Action Plan looks at each of the Key Pastoral Directions and breaks open opportunities to improve or action each Direction by outlining goals and strategies for achieving these goals, as well as indicating where actions will originate. Parishes, Deaneries and Diocesan Agencies are encouraged to read this document and discern how they can engage with the suggested strategies. It is anticipated that over the coming years, communities will prioritise their approach and address strategies as appropriate, determining what can be built on and what is an achievable timeframe. The list of strategies within the Action Plan is not exhaustive; however, it does offer communities a starting point to review present activities and to meet the challenges and opportunities in the years to come. In considering the way forward, a usual approach may be to ask:

- What is our current approach or status?
- What could it be?
- What will we do?
- Who, when and how will any changes be made?

Family Engagement

The family is the ‘domestic Church’ because it is the primary place where both children and adults learn to intimately love other persons and encounter the forgiving healing power of Christ. Recognising our families as the cornerstone of Church and society, we will support and strengthen them.
