

Catholic Diocese of Toowoomba celebrates significant milestones for clergy.

Bishop Robert McGuckin, Bishop of the Catholic Diocese of Toowoomba, warmly welcomes the community to a celebration of significant Jubilees of Priestly Ordination for the clergy. Fr Hal Ranger, priest in residence at St Patrick's Cathedral, has reached 60 years of priestly ordination. Fr Brian Connolly, Parish Priest of Stanthorpe, and Bishop Bill Morris, Emeritus Bishop of Toowoomba, have both reached 50 years of priestly ordination.

A Mass celebrated at St Patrick's Cathedral will mark these special milestones. Many priests from the Toowoomba Diocese will be in attendance, as well as other priests from outside of the diocese, some of whom are also jubilarians. This is an opportunity for parishioners, friends and family to give thanks for the service these men have given to their communities over the years.
