

Following Jesus: Finding our way home in an age of anxiety

Six Monday evening sessions based the book by Henri Nouwen
(Facilitated by Sr. Elaine Morzone)

“Nouwen writes eloquently about calling and purpose, fear and hope. He explains why, with so many choices available to twenty-first century seekers, the greatest reward for those looking for spiritual direction is rediscovering Jesus’ teaching on love. Along the way, Nouwen offers warm, discerning, practicable habits to help us to navigate the narrow, sometimes arduous but ultimately fulfilling road of conviction and faith.”

The sessions will

- present a compelling case for why Christianity is still relevant, beautiful, intelligent and necessary in the modern world.
- offer us timeless wisdom for life from one of the great spiritual masters of our age
- gently lead the way into a life that centres on Jesus and engulfs the follower with God’s love, a sense of belonging, and a purpose that endures.
