

QUADRATOS: Walking the Fourfold Gospel Path

A Labyrinth Walk facilitated by Randal and Susan Dennings

(Based on A. Shaia's book "Heart and Mind:
The Four-Gospel Journey for Radical Transformation")

Quadratos is a new name for the ancient, universal, four-path journey of growth and transformation.

Recognized by every major religious faith and school of psychology, the four-path Journey is sequential, cyclical and never-ending. It forms a map of our ongoing human experience across life's four great questions:

How do we face change?

How do we move through suffering?

How do we receive joy?

How do we mature in service?

At its most universal, Quadratos is experienced in the pattern of the four seasons, and nature's cycle of life-death-life.

This four-path Journey was at the very heart of early Christian belief and practice. It was woven into the fabric of every practice and was the Spirit-led thread to the choice of the four traditional Christian gospels and their sequencing, stitching them together into a seamless, unified story of radical transformation.
